POP REVIEW

A Musician Who Raps And Displays His Muscles

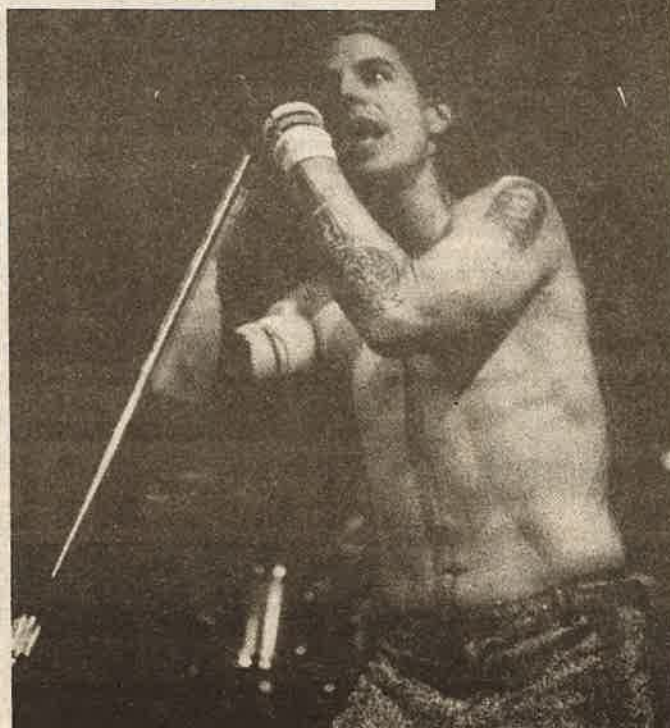

By JON PARELES

On Friday night at Madison Square Garden, it looked like the same old Red Hot Chili Peppers: shirtless, sweaty, rowdy and pumping out funk vamps. But 13 years into its career, the group has learned some new tricks and has upgraded its old ones.

A camera crew from MTV, broadcasting internationally, caught the antics Chili Peppers who fans expect. Anthony Kiedis, the band's lead singer, rapped, yowled and occasionally crooned; he and Flea, on bass, high-kicked, puffed out their chests, pumped their hips and traded banter laced with four-letter words. A mosh pit on the front half of the Garden floor stayed active. Yet with a new guitarist, Dave Navarro, and material from their current album, "One Hot Minute" (Warner Brothers), the Red Hot Chili Peppers have pushed their music past its established routines.

The band has always drawn on 1970's funk, artfully and sometimes blatantly mimicking the deep dance grooves of James Brown, George Clinton, Kool and the Gang, Cameo and Stevie Wonder. While Mr. Kiedis has never been a gifted singer, he can rap clearly and fast, and he's versatile enough for music that shifts between rapped verses and rock-song choruses. Just as important, his muscles, long hair and tattoos have made him a rock pinup, and as he romps around the stage he becomes a living advertisement for the songs' combination of come-ons and pagan philosophizing. In an encore, Mr. Kiedis's role model, Iggy Pop, still lithe at 48, showed up to dance and growl through the

Stooges' "I Wanna Be Your Dog."

On the Chili Peppers' two most recent albums, the band has moved beyond its old party-hearty songs. Early in the set, Mr. Kiedis sang, "I like pleasure spiked with pain," and at the concert invitations to pleasure like "Suck My Kiss" were juxtaposed with the painful memories and confessions of "Under the Bridge" and "Warped." There was also some brawny utopianism in "One Big Mob," a paean to universal kinship: "Take care of me/'Cause I might be you."

As the songs have broadened their messages, the music has also grown more expansive, and Mr. Navarro, formerly of Jane's Addiction, is clearly the catalyst. He knows his funk, snapping out syncopated chords or working the wah-wah pedal alongside Flea's thumb-popping bass lines and Chad Smith's robust drumming. But he also adds melody and wailing psychedelic leads to the band's entrenched funk and hard rock, and he makes the band far more flexible. Recent songs like "Deep Kick" and "Warped" wandered through multiple styles, while older material like "Give It Away" and "Backwoods" riffed hard, then floated into free-form jams.

Where the old Chili Peppers had worked out a winning but limited formula, the new band revitalizes it by ignoring the old boundaries. The Chili Peppers have begun to put their music where their words are.

I waited 5 years to finally get to see the Red Hot Chili Peppers and on March 14 at the Pittsburgh Civic Arena, I got my chance. It was the best concert I have ever gone to!

But something happened at the end of the show. Anthony fell off stage into the mosh pit, and while he was trying to get up, the security guards thought a boy was too close to Anthony so, they beat him up and Dave Navarro saw the boy getting beat up and he put his guitar down and jumped into the mosh pit to save the boy! I was right down front in the mosh pit and saw all of it! These guys are not only gorgeous and totally cool but, they really care for their fans! All my friends and I love Anthony and hope he's ok and hope they'll still come to Pittsburgh again.

Dear Red Hot Chili Peppers :

Many wars in this world take place . I can watch reports of wars on TV every day . I like no war . and I can't understand why these foolish people have so many wars . I think that music is very powerful , maybe it can cease wars and you guys are responsible for writing such immortal music , calling on all people to live friendly and peaceful .

MARKSISM TODAY

THE DETAILS BODY-MODIFICATION SCORECARD

Tattoos and piercings: They're badges of individuality in a conformist society. You're probably got one yourself. (And if not, why not? Are you some kind of weirdo?) To find the god of bod-mod, Details has rated the efforts of the most enthusiastic self-sculptors. Thank God cosmetic self-disfigurement transcends fashion, and will absolutely never go the way of the ponytail or the bell-bottom trouser. That would be as bad as seeing your favorite rock star stuck in a Dr. Seuss rave hat for the rest of his life.

HOW THEY SCORED Tattoos: 5 points for small (the band on Courtney's left ankle); 10 for medium (the pinning skull on Slash's left arm), and 20 for humongous (the SEARCH & DESTROY on Henry Rollins's back). Piercings: 5 points for ear, 15 for any other part. Body-sculpting marks: Up to 25 extra points for plastic surgery, scarification, prostheses, etc.

HENRY ROLLINS

Tattoos: 160 (2 small, 13 medium, 1 humongous) Piercings: 0 (his skin is too hard) Surgery, etc.: 0 (none visible) Total: 160 Rock's Illustrated Man has the most spectacular single tattoo in this crowd, the SEARCH & DESTROY sunburst on his back.

DAVE NAVARRO

Tattoos: 95 (9 small, 5 medium) Piercings: 40 (both ears, both nipples) Surgery, etc.: 0 (none visible) Total: 135 The newest Chili Pepper ranks for his tattoos (a Roman numeral on each knuckle) as well as his pierced nipples.

CHÉR

Tattoos: 60 (2 small on right arm, 3 medium on left arm, pelvis, and left foot, and 1 big one on butt) Piercings: 10 (both ears) Surgery, etc.: 20 (assorted) Total: 90 We predict an infomercial: "Celtic navel rings: your key to eternal youth."

AL JOURGENSEN OF MINISTRY

Tattoos: 90 (both arms are so heavily tattooed that it's hard to see if it's two big ones or a hundred small ones) Piercings: 0 Surgery, etc.: 0 Total: 90 A bad case of the needle and the damage done.

MICHAEL JACKSON

Tattoos: 0 Piercings: 0 Surgery, etc.: 25 (lots of plastic surgery, even if you don't count his pigmentation disorder) Total: 25 High score for sundry surgical modifications, but "distinctive markings" on Jacko's penis were ruled out as natural biological phenomena.

COURTNEY LOVE

Tattoos: 15 (3 small ones on back, chest, and left ankle) Piercings: 10 (both ears) Surgery, etc.: 10 (breast implants) Total: 35 Courtney's new and improved chest features the letter K tattooed below her breasts.

PERRY FARRELL

Tattoos: 10 (1 medium, on right arm) Piercings: 45 (3 ear, 1 nose, 1 nipple) Surgery, etc.: 0 Total: 55 Perry's brainchild Lollapalooza had traveling body-piercing booths. As far as we know, he has not gone as far as to get the infamous Prince Albert.

FLEA

Tattoos: 110 (4 small, 7 medium, 1 humongous) Piercings: 0 Surgery, etc.: 0 Total: 110 Tattoos range from a Jimi Hendrix portrait to, well, cartoon elephants. Flea, are you, like, short of ideas or something?

SEAL

Tattoos: 0 Piercings: 30 (1 nose, 1 nipple) Facial scarification: 15 Total: 45 Big-time New Ager scores well—limited piercings, but characteristic facial scars build up the points for the Artist Privately Known as Sealhenry Samuel.

SLASH

Tattoos: 30 (3 medium, assorted) Piercings: 50 (4 ear, 1 navel, 1 nose) Surgery, etc.: 0 Total: 80 Hair hides four earrings (including hoops). Holes in nose and navel. Judges deemed reptiles accessories, not modifications. —Gavin Edwards
